EUROPEAN DAGUERREOTYPE ASSOCIATION

We are inviting you to become a member of EDA.

EDA is offering access to a worldwide and growing network of curators, conservators, teachers, specialists, collectors and private owners. With your interest and help, EDA will become a strong and interactive community with an interest in the many different aspects of the use and practise of early photographic techniques and their expressions.

Members of EDA will be informed about upcoming events, exhibitions, new publications and activities. EDA partners are offering assistance in organising workshops, publications, collection maintenance, education and teaching. EDA will assist or organise for his members conferences, meetings and at least one symposium or excursion a year, on different locations all over Europe.
